Full-Time and Part-Time Speech-Language Pathologists for Hire

All About Speech & Language (AASL) is seeking licensed Speech-Language Pathologists with experience treating pediatric clients, ages 18 months old to teenagers and young adults. Opportunities also available to treat adults recovering from Stroke and Traumatic Brain Injury.

AASL is a private pediatric practice in Tampa, FL. Founded by innovative and skilled speech-language pathologists, AASL works with individuals with special needs through their lifespan, from early childhood through adulthood. Our Mission is to “Communicate, Grow, and Connect” our clients. Our therapies support individuals to acquire communication skills in order to grow as unique and special persons and thrive within their respective communities. AASL prides itself on our unwavering commitment and dedication to providing quality, results-driven, evidence-based treatments and personalized care.

Areas of practice include: Autism Spectrum Disorders, Apraxia of speech, Articulation and Phonology, Receptive and Expressive Language Delays/Disorders, Reading/Writing Disorders, and Social Skills. We are different from any other company in the Tampa Bay area as we are committed to offering programs that seek to address the whole child. We believe that an interdisciplinary approach to addressing the needs of each individual child is essential; we also understand that other therapies, in conjunction with speech therapy, can result in amazing gains! If you are energetic, professional, creative, motivated, passionate, and personally invested as a therapist, then you will fit right in with our unique and collaborative team of Speech and Occupational Therapy professionals!

Our immediately available full-time and part-time positions will provide therapy Monday through Friday, and will be based out of our Riverview and/or S. Tampa offices; however, may provide therapy at our private schools as business dictates. Please send your resume and contact information to: info@aaspeech.com.
